"MVEZA'S SHISANYAMA" is a single gas braai under a gazebo outside the Walmer Jazz Bar. This little stand is one of PE's best kept secrets.

Mvesa, a seasoned master on the flames, knows he has the creativity & skill to take on some of the best ShisaNyamas in South Africa in the ultimate taste Challenge - the Nando's ShisaNyama Championship 2014.

His most loyal customers range from caddies at the local golf club to the big wigs who they carry bags for. He's famous for his "Whole in One Full Chicken" which combines a perfect balance of fire & flavour.

Coming from small beginnings Mvesa's dream would be to have the world's first ShisaNyama on a golf course!
